

Mr Clive B Goodwin

Clive Goodwin was born in Sydney in 1943 and until 1950 lived above the Mission to Seafarers' premises at Circular Quay where his father was the Principal Chaplain.

He was educated at Cranbrook School and the University of Sydney from which he graduated in 1967 with a Bachelor of Architecture degree. He is a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Architects.

In 1968 he established the firm Goodwin & Southwell Architects, where he designed and managed the procurement of multiple building types including resorts, residential and commercial buildings, retirement villages and hospitals, until retirement in 2012.

Clive was appointed a trustee of The Sydney Bethel Union in 1982, Deputy Chairman in 1986 and Chairman in 2014.

Mr Llewellyn C Russell AM

He has a Bachelor of Economics degree from Queensland University in and a Master of Business Administration Degree from the Heriot -Watt University in Edinburgh. Appointed to the Commonwealth Public Service in 1969 and spent most of his time there in the Transport Department. He joined the secretariat for the Australia to Europe Shipping Conference in 1981. He became the Executive Director of various organisations involved with promoting the interests of shipping Line members before being appointed the inaugural CEO of Shipping Australia Ltd in 2001, retiring in 2013. He was President of the State Chamber of Commerce in NSW from 1998 to 2001 and a Director of the Australian Chamber of Commerce and Industry over the same period. He is a graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport. He received the award of a Member of the Order of Australia in 2009 for services to shipping, trade and business associations.

He is a Councillor of the Australian Mariners' Welfare Association and was appointed a Trustee of the Sydney Bethel Union in July 2014 and appointed Deputy Chairman in 2021.

David Parmeter

David holds a Bachelor of Commerce (Industrial Relations) from University of New South Wales, Diploma of Commercial Shipping Practice, a Bachelor of Laws and Diploma of Legal Practice from University of Technology Sydney, and has been admitted as a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of NSW.

After graduation from UNSW, David commenced employment as an Industrial Relations Officer with BHP at the Port Kembla steelworks. Subsequently he joined ANL and started a long association with the shipping and maritime industries.

From 1987 to 2001 David held a variety of different roles with what was then called the Australian Shipowners Association. In 2002 he joined Teekay Shipping (Australia) Pty Ltd, the local subsidiary of a large multinational shipping company, as head of Human Resources. In late 2006 David was appointed Managing Director, a position he held until May 2018.

While MD of Teekay Australia, David was invited to join the Council of Australian Mariners Welfare Society, and currently is Chairman. He was appointed a Director of the Sydney Bethel Union in November 2019.

In October 2018 David was elected chair of Maritime Industry Australia Ltd, a peak body representing maritime operators in the shipping, towage, port and related industries. In that capacity, he is the current Chair of the Asian Shipowners Association, a leading international shipping body, made up of the national associations of all countries in the region.

Mr Derek G Lightfoot

Derek was educated at Barker College and Sydney University, graduating with a Bachelor of Economics in 1979. He qualified as a Chartered Accountant with PricewaterhouseCoopers, working in their Sydney and Hong Kong practices. He subsequently held a senior management position with the Hong Kong Airport Authority, before moving back to Sydney in 1997 to join StarTrack, a major Australian transport company. He was appointed CEO in 2003, managed the sale process on behalf of the founder and worked closely for many years with the purchasers, Qantas and Australia Post.

Derek is currently the CEO of GMK Logistics, a national transport and logistics business. He is also a business and corporate advisor to Degotardi, Smith & Partners, a leading surveying business, based in Sydney. He was appointed a Director of the Sydney Bethel Union in August 2021.

Mr Shane Hobday

Shane has a Bachelor of Engineering (Mechanical) from Newcastle University and is a graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors. He has over 35 years of experience in the port industry in NSW having held senior executive operational roles in both the government and private port operator organisations from 2000 to 2016.

In addition, Shane was Chair of the Safety and Security Committee of International Association of Ports and Harbours between 2010 -2013.

He has been Chair of the Sydney Seafarer Welfare Committee since 2017 and until November 2021 was a Director of the Mission to Seafarers, Sydney. He was appointed a Director of the Sydney Bethel Union in December

Mr James AM Cowper

James holds a Bachelor of Arts and a Master of Commerce, majoring in Finance and Commercial Law, from the University of Sydney. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA Charterholder).

James is a Director at Principle Advisory Services, a leading Australian investment management advisory and distribution firm. James covers the Australasian institutional investor market and specialises in private markets investments - namely, private equity/venture capital, alternative credit strategies and unlisted real assets

In 2016, James became a Director of the CFA Society Sydney and Chair of its Member Services Committee. In 2020, James was appointed Treasurer of CFA Society Sydney and joined the Investment Committee responsible for the management of the Society's financial reserves. He was appointed a Director of the Sydney Bethel Union in February 2022.

James was named one of Private Equity International's (PEI) 40 under 40: Future Leaders of Private Equity in 2020